Enterprise Development (ED)

Imisebeyelanga Services may conduct Enterprise Development on behalf of companies as we are certified to be fully compliant in terms of the Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment Act, 2003 (Act 53 of 2003), the concomitant Codes of Good Practice as published in the Government Gazette on 9 February 2007 and all relevant criteria therein for the recognition of Enterprise Development contributions.

Monetary or non-monetary contributions made to us as a third party performing Enterprise Development on behalf of the company may be claimed as an Enterprise Development contribution, in addition, under the current B-BBEE Codes of Good Practice, as the black owned companies supported by Imisebeyelanga Services are Category A beneficiaries (Exempted Micro Enterprise that is more than 50% SA black owned), the full value of the contribution made to us by the Measured Entity may be recognised at a factor of 1.25 when calculating the Measured Entity's Enterprise Development Contributions.
